

HumAngle

MILESTONE EDITION

October 2021

UPROOTED
&
EXPOSED

Illustration used to depict a hungry and helpless Nigerian. Photo: HumAngle.

<https://humanglemedia.com/displaced-by-bandits-5-the-different-shades-of-zamfaras-humanitarian-tragedy/>

In a tone of helplessness underlining their agonies, one of the displaced people who spoke with HumAngle cried out: "We just want something to eat, a place to stay, and something to do to take care of our families."

Names Of Lekki Toll Gate Massacre Victims

Contrary to official claims that there were no killings, HumAngle identified names of at least six victims of the Lekki toll gate shooting that took place last year. There are also at least 19 others who sustained various forms of injury, mostly bullet-inflicted wounds.

We Have So Far

Candlelight procession held in Abuja, Nigeria, on Oct. 16, 2020, in honour of #EndSARS protesters who lost their lives during the demonstrations. Photo credit: Charles Photography

<https://humanglemedia.com/names-of-lekki-toll-gate-massacre-victims-we-have-so-far/>

What New Surrenders Tell Us About Boko Haram's Size, State Propaganda

<https://humanglemedia.com/what-new-surrenders-tell-us-about-boko-harams-size-state-propaganda/>

Nigerian authorities often referred to members of Non-State Armed Groups in the Northeast as 'remnants', but recent large-scale surrenders suggest that they were formidable in number and had been underestimated.

The Nigerian Doctor (8): ‘Being A Health Worker Affects My Mental Health’

“What could be more important than healthcare?” A female Nigerian surgeon captures frustrations among doctors amid collapsing healthcare infrastructure and exodus of doctors seeking offshore jobs in Europe and Asia.

<https://humanglemedia.com/the-nigerian-doctor-8-being-a-health-worker-affects-my-mental-health/>

Gwoza Returnees Facing Increased Boko Haram Hostility Amid Harvest

<https://humanglemedia.com/gwoza-returnees-facing-increased-boko-haram-hostility-amid-harvest-season/>

IDPs who resettled in Gwoza, Northeast Nigeria, years ago are in a helpless situation. Terror attacks prevent them from making a living from their farmlands, and they say the military personnel assigned to protect them aren't doing enough.

Terrorists Become Deadlier In Sokoto Despite Measures

Despite shutting down telco services, markets and bike movement as measures to take the war against the terrorists, the enemy is spitting more fire and carnage in Sokoto.

<https://humanglemedia.com/terrorists-become-deadlier-in-sokoto-despite-govts-stringent-measures/>

Waste disposal habits in Nigeria are creating harmful greenhouse gases. Harmful greenhouse gases are created from decomposing open waste that rise up to the atmosphere to trap heat, causing extreme weather reactions.

<https://humanglemedia.com/how-improper-waste-management-contributes-to-climate-change-crisis-in-nigeria/>

Borno's Christian Displaced Children Get New Opportunity at Education.

Gwoza Local Government Area, Borno State witnessed massive displacement of people. Life's only priority was survival. Data showed that 2.8 million people in Borno, Yobe and Adamawa states had education need emergencies. Reverend Zoka Emmanuel's Eternal Love Service school has moved into IDPs for Christians to meet the needs and put a smile in the faces of children.

<https://humanglemedia.com/bornos-christian-idps-4-how-hundreds-of-displaced-children-get-education-in-shwari/>

The Cost Of Lagos' Poor Air Quality On Lives

Air pollution in Nigeria's commercial capital, Lagos, is killing people. Recent GIS data extracted by HumAngle shows the areas most affected by the scourge.

<https://humanglemedia.com/the-cost-of-lagos-poor-air-quality-on-lives-and-properties/>

The displaced in the Tse-Yandev IDP camp in Benue, North-central Nigeria battle illnesses that remain unattended.

<https://humanglemedia.com/tse-yandev-no-hope-in-sight-for-benue-idps-suffering-health-challenges/>